Colours

This colour chart illustrates the standard range of colours, although these colours may not be available in all ranges. For further information see the individual data sheets. Most inks are available ex stock.

There may be slight variations between ink ranges. No guarantee can be given that colours will exactly match those illustrated, since precise reproduction will always be dependent on printing conditions.

Special Colours

A service is supplied for matching against shades outside of the standard range. In addition our technical department is always available to discuss specific inks and printing applications.
